MECASE STUDYBLOG POSTCONTACT ME

HELLO!

I'm Chad Smith

Service Design Director specializing in integrating Human Centered Design into Health and Human Services programs.

Over the last 7 years, I gained meaningful experiences in diverse design maturity organizations driving teams and clients through mixed approaches based on Design Thinking, Lean UX and Agile, while also helping reform organizational culture in most existing existing and delivery new products.

For the past 2 years, I directed Service Design responsibilities under my company Your Seat.
